

International production

Each year, Paris attracts a large range of International film crew. Paris Film team will be pleased to guide you.

In 2013, Paris welcomed more than 110 International productions.

Some International productions use an executive production based in France . To inform you, please find above the shootings done in Paris since 2006 with a help of a production service based in France. You can make a research by country, type (commercial, documentary, feature, Tv fiction, short), year or executive production company and you will know the name of the project with the number of days filming in Paris.
